Who we are

The New Jersey Association of Conservation Districts (NJACD) organized in 1965, provides professional development and leadership programs to the Soil Conservation Districts covering all 21 counties in the state. The Soil Conservation Districts are locally-led, cooperating agencies that implement conservation programs in consultation with the New Jersey Department of Agriculture and other State and Federal agencies and organizations.

NJACD Conservation Stewardship Scholarship

“Investing in qualified students pursuing a career in natural resource conservation.”

Honoring the legacy of dedicated conservationists, the New Jersey Association of Conservation Districts’ Conservation Stewardship Scholarship provides vital support to students passionate about protecting our natural world. Your donation helps continue this tradition—nurturing the leaders who will safeguard our environment for generations to come.

Your generous support helps cultivate the next generation of environmental leaders. By contributing to the NJACD Conservation Stewardship Scholarship Fund, you empower passionate students to turn their commitment to conservation into meaningful careers—ensuring a brighter, greener future for us all.

Since 1990, the NJACD Conservation Stewardship Scholarship Fund has helped open doors for aspiring environmental leaders across New Jersey by awarding $1,000 scholarships to deserving students.

Who benefits from your support?

- New Jersey residents dedicated to conservation
- Full-time students in good academic standing
- Scholars who have completed at least four full semesters
- Those enrolled in programs focused on natural resources

Join us in nurturing the next generation of conservationists. Your gift today helps passionate students transform their commitment to our planet into lasting, meaningful careers.

NJACD is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. A confirmation of your donation will be provided for your tax preparation.
